ROANOKE COUNCIL 562: SERVING OUR PRIESTS, PARISHES AND COMMUNITY SINCE 1901

Grand Knight's Report

Karl D. Kleinhenz, Grand Knight

First, I want to thank each of you who have put your trust and confidence in me again this year to lead Council 562 into the next fraternal year. I hope I have lived up to your expectations from last year. I want to congratulate all of the new officers and committee chairs. I look forward to working with you fine gentlemen in the coming year. I am glad to know that I will have your support and commitment as we sketch out the future direction for the council. This will include better organization and support for the pool, planning of clubroom renovations, more service projects and better communications with members. I will be asking for your input and ideas. This is your council, and together we can move it in a positive direction.

We will be voting on the Council spending plan, which will be published in next month's newsletter, in August.

Again, thank you, and I look forward to continue working with a great organization of dedicated gentlemen.

Vivat Jesus!

Chaplain's Message

As summer begins, our minds certainly turn to alternative things that our families can do, namely, take trips or send children to camps. Others may prefer a so-called "stay-cation," which is a vacation which consists in staying at home. I want to reiterate what I said in last year's message – and probably will do this every year: As a pastor, and on behalf of our other pastors, please continue to support your parish with your monetary contributions. Our churches do not go on vacation, bills still need to be paid, wages still need to be paid.

During the summer, I often say a prayer for our young people. They are on a long break, there may be a tendency for them to not be productive in some way or another. The operative word, of course, is 'productive.' So, for instance, in this highly technological age, I personally do not consider playing video or computer games as actually doing something. But doing something that increases knowledge, or a skill, or achieves a health goal, is certainly being productive.

Above all, let us not slacken in our prayer life during the summer months. Just as we continue to strengthen our family ties, so we should not forget our ties with God, our relationship with the Lord, which is maintained in prayer.

Have a great summer everyone and may God keep you all safe!

Vivat Jesus!

Canfield Scholarship Recipients Named

The Canfield Scholarship Committee met and after thoughtful deliberation has selected this year's recipients. The Committee wishes to thank all those who took the time to make application for this year's funds. All who applied are truly worthy of our consideration. However, it was our formidable task to select only ten of those applicants for our awards.

The Committee has chosen: Charles Blevins, Danielle Hodnett, Tim Rowe, Daniel Rowe, Stephen Bernys, Jamie VanKerckhove, Amy Waddell, Mary Weatherman, Cecilia Flagg and Jennifer Talevi to receive $500.00 for the academic year 2012-2013.

Congratulations to all those selected. Best wishes to all who made application and continue to excel in all your academic and personal endeavors.

Respectfully submitted—Canfield Scholarship Committee

Business Meeting - 1st Monday of Month—7:30p.m.
Social Meeting - 3rd Monday of Month—6:30p.m.

Catholic Historical Museum

June sure has started out as the beginning of a busy summer season. Two of our church's had a very busy weekend, Resurrection Church in Moneta, VA had their annual Joyous Junque sale. The people were lined up and there were items all over the place. You needed to spend half the day just looking around to see all they had. Catholic Historical Museum was lucky enough to find two pedicels' to use in the museum.

St. Elias was busy cooking up some very tasteful Lebanese food in their annual Lebanese festival. You could smell the food blocks away. I believe they had a record number of people there this year. There were so many different dishes and it all was tasting delicious.

These are two events you add to your calendar for next year.

On June 5th we had the altar from the old St. Elias Church returned to CHM after a two year refurbishing project taken on by John Vietello who was working on it for his Eagle Scout project. Please take the time and come see the beautiful work he has done on this altar.

Please mark your calendars for July 20th at 7:00 pm. A lecture will be given at the CHM on Falconry in The Middle Ages. You must have a reservations as we are limited to 40 people. There will be a $2.00 program fee. Please call the office (540-982-0152) and leave your name and number of people attending. The lecture is presented by Ms. Lee Chichester. Ms. Chichester conducts programs surrounding raptors and environmental conservation for groups ranging from 4-H to garden clubs.

On Monday May 21 the Council hosted Clergy Night. The evening began with Mass at St. Andrew's celebrated by Archbishop Timothy Broglio, Archbishop of the Military Services, and concelebrated by ten priests from western and southwestern Virginia. At no time in recent memory have so many clergy assembled for a single Mass at St. Andrew's.

After Mass, 135 people attended dinner honoring our priests and religious. We were treated to a performance by Roanoke Catholic School's Performing Arts Dancers. Archbishop Broglio gave a keynote address on religious freedom and the history of military chaplaincy in the United States.

Mayor and Brother David Bowers presented Archbishop Broglio a proclamation naming May 21 as "Archbishop Timothy Broglio Day" and also presented him a key to the city.

Many people are responsible for the success of this program but a special thank you goes to Wanda Donckers and her team for set up and decoration of the Social Hall, Jim Sullivan and his Social Hour Committee, Altar Servers from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Amanda and Kaitlyn Johnson, the St. Elias Youth Group, and the staff of St. Andrew's for all their help.
